

Summer's Story * A Season of Recovery

I am Demi Thompson and I want you to meet my little cousin

Summer Kathleen Panozzo

Summer was born at 27 weeks & only 2.5 lbs

Summer LOVES to dance

Summer was a princess from the start

Summer's has a brother Carter & sister Nala

Summer has always expressed compassion for others

Summer is loved by our Big, Fat, Crazy, Greek, Irish, German+ Family

On January 18th, 2016, Summer was diagnosed with Acute Lymphocytic Leukemia (ALL). Summer was born a fighter and continued to be as she had to overcome the many complications that so often accompany those born prematurely. She now begins her latest, and most difficult fight yet. It our turn to to support Summer as she has always brought care and concern for others.

We want support to be visible!

Become one of Summer's Soldiers purchase and wear a Lokai bracelet to keep positive thoughts to Summer. Lokai represents that life is full of joy and sadness and is intended to remind you to stay balanced and centered along your journey. The black bead holds mud from the Dead Sea, the lowest point on earth intended to remind you to have hope when at your lowest. The white bead carries water from Mount Everest, the highest point on Earth intended to remind you to stay humble. Orange is the color of Leukemia.

$10 will contribute to support 2 years of Summer's treatments & the fight against Leukemia.
